Travellers Season

It is that time of year again, but the police advise that the only reason they come is for paid work. If you don't employ them, then they should not come. If you employ them to take away your waste cuttings, and they do not have the necessary licence, then you are liable to a hefty fine.

To be informed when travellers are in the neighbourhood then sign up for the Police Community Messaging Service by contacting PCSO Paul Martin using the details in the Community Police Newsletter. The message won't literally say that travellers are in the area, but just to be wary of cold callers.

Churston Library

There is a questionnaire at the Library for you to feedback how you make use of its services to Torbay Council. This will be used to decide how best to reshape the Torbay Library Service into the future to save money. One option that seems to be contemplated is voluntary administration.

Free Recycle

Do you have serviceable belongings that are superfluous to your needs? Have you considered offering them for free to anyone prepared to collect? If so, then I am happy to advertise them for free in THE GAZETTE with the proviso that I accept no responsibility for them whatsoever.

TQ Women's Institute

There is a "new kid on the block" ~ an alternative Women's Institute that meets at 7:30 pm on the 4th Wednesday of each month at Caroline's Cafe in the Churston Traditional Farm Shop on Dartmouth Road.

For further details either go along to one of their meetings or contact the Secretary, Jo Walkom on 07850 055463 or
President, Caroline Haddock on 01803 857826.

Greenway Community News

We are now officially open for the 2014 season, and we have been enjoying our magnificent magnolias and other delightful spring flowers. When the sun does shine, it is simply glorious at Greenway.

As many of you will be aware, we have been undertaking some consultation around increased access to Greenway for 2015. Plans being proposed mean the property would be open to visitors seven days a week during the core season which runs from February to October. The benefits of opening seven days a week at Greenway would mean that visitors would be spread throughout the week rather than condensed during peak times.

We held two drop-in sessions at Galmpton Village Institute and Dittisham Village Hall to find out what people think locally. This is prior to us making an application for changes. At the time of writing, we are still receiving responses to our questionnaire, so there are no results available. Once we have collated the information we will be making some decisions about the content of our application to make amendments to our planning agreement with South Hams District Council. The process is likely to take 2-3 months. We will endeavour to keep people informed of any progress.

If there is anything you would like to discuss further please feel free to contact me on 01803 661856 or E-mail carly.mays@nationaltrust.org.uk.

Please Note

As sometimes happens, the best laid plans are unable to be realised. Such is the case with this year's Skills Day planned for Sunday 7th September. Unfortunately it will not run, so you will just have to put on hold all those skills, crafts and talents until 2015! We expect twice the entries!

However, in the planning pipeline, a Words and Music event is being considered with a provisional date of October 4th and a theme of Harvest and Autumn. Confirmation is to be found in a future issue of THE GAZETTE. These events have been popular in the past so WATCH THIS SPACE!

Finally a comment on the real Welcome to Spring provided by the particularly good display of Spring flowers in the village's public spaces – what a way to banish winter blues!

AGM Report

The Chairman reported another satisfactory year. There have been a few minor maintenance renewals & improvements, while the diverse community use of the Institute has continued unabated. Our saddest time of the past year was the untimely death of our trustee, Gordon Batten, who played an immensely important role in reflecting the views of his community. Finally, it seems that our objective of obtaining Charitable Incorporated Organisation status to provide limited liability for trustees is soon to be realised.

‘So, what happened to the dinosaurs?’

This was a question put to me by an enquirer at a Christianity Explored course I was leading some years ago in London. It was a genuine question which reflected a deeper concern that many have about placing their confidence in the Bible as God’s word. The problem basically is this: We are taught in school and by society at large that the world is millions of years old. However, one only needs to read the opening chapter of the Bible (Genesis 1) to see that the Biblical account of creation is much shorter and the world is described as being much younger than what we have been taught. So where do dinosaurs fit into the picture?

I was very glad the enquirer asked her question, because the Bible does provide an answer for it. In fact, the answer to that question was influential in my decision to become a pastor. So I was able to give the questioner an explanation which satisfied her intellect and meant that she was able to have confidence in the Bible as an authority that she could trust - both historically and morally. A few months later she became a Christian.

Most people don’t realise that this problem of being able to trust the Bible, especially the Old Testament, is something that Jesus himself recognized people would struggle with. In John’s gospel he says ‘If you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me. But since you do not believe what he wrote, how are you going to believe what I say?’ (John 5:46-48)

So if you’d like to know what the Bible says about dinosaurs, text DINOSAUR and your address to 07769-419-073, and I’ll post you a free booklet. You won’t be put on a mailing list, and nobody will call. But you will find out when God made them, and the Biblical answer to what happened to them.

Please refer to Page 23 for the times of our regular services.

From BRIXHAM RECTORY

Holiday times are always special and it is hard not to see this time of year as holiday, even when we are working hard. God made us not just for work but to enjoy the world in which we live. Jesus said “My purpose is to give life in all its fullness.” (John 10 10).

We have to sometimes learn to work to live not live to work.

And consider why we are human beings not human doings. Taking time out for ourselves and our families is important and so is taking time out to pray and say “thank you” for what a beautiful place God has given us to live in.

It is my prayer that over the next few months we make a little more time for ourselves, each other and for God.

GRA Annual General Meeting

The recent AGM was a productive event, opening with an address by General Manager of the National Trust English Riviera, Gary Calland, who informed everyone of the National Trust's proposal to extend the opening hours for Greenway House to include Monday and Tuesday. We were also informed of the educational initiatives, which would encourage the further involvement of local young people in Greenway. Gary's address was followed by a GRA meeting, which involved the reading of the Chairman's Annual Report, the Financial Report, and the re-election of the Committee.

GRA Activities

GRA continues to contribute to the formation of the local Neighbourhood Plan, in relationship to potentially threatening development proposals and with attention to the Local Plan, along with issues relating to traffic, transport, and the Common. Most annual resident subscriptions have also been collected.

NT Greenway House

We invite all who attended the National Trust consultation on March 27th to feed back to Committee members any comments or additional suggestions which the GRA can then pass on to the National Trust. Your GRA and the National Trust are equally keen to encourage and sustain constructive dialogue on issues affecting the village.

Committee Membership

We warmly invite all who would like to make a more active contribution to protecting and enhancing village life to offer their services on our rather depleted committee. The post of Chairman remains vacant for any energetic, public-spirited person to fill. Richard Boyles would also be glad to hand over the responsibility for Webmaster if any IT pros should be happy to take over, or offer assistance. Offers for these posts and general committee members gratefully accepted!

Public Inquiry: Churston Golf Course

joint text by the Rule 6 Party:

Over the last few weeks Churston, Galmpton & Broadsands Community Partnership; RAGS; and Richard Haddock (known as the Rule 6 Party) and supported by many golf club members who are against the plans as well as Torbay Council, have been engaged in a public inquiry against the house builder Bloor Homes and the management board of the Golf Club (known as the Appellants).

Background: In order to develop part of the golf course into a housing estate and relocate the Clubhouse, the Council as freeholder was required to approve a change in the lease. Despite Councillors voting 36 to 2 not to approve this, the former Mayor Mr Nick Bye did just that, only hours before he lost office in 2011. This contract is due to expire on 2nd May 2014 (3 years after it was signed).

The Proposal: The Appellants wish to build a large golf club house on the 3rd fairway immediately in front of Bridge Road. It would be almost 11m higher than adjacent houses and approx. 60% larger than the current clubhouse. As well as a golf clubhouse it will provide conference facilities. However, the car park would be smaller than present and all traffic would go down Bridge Rd. The Appellants own traffic models show Bridge Rd would fail from too much traffic. The course would be extended into important wildlife habitat now comprising farmland. All of this is to allow Bloor Homes to build 132 units at the current clubhouse site.

Tactical Delays by the Appellants: The Appellants left it until the last minute to submit their Appeal. After their planning application had been refused by the Council in March 2013 it took over 12 months before they brought their case before an Inspector in March 2014.

Despite this, just days before the inquiry, the Appellants were still seeking additional deferments as they had not apparently had sufficient time to prepare. However they did find time to launch, we say, a diversionary tactic calling on the Inspector to require us to submit our case on Environmental Impact into a lengthy written submission to be heard on day 1 of the Inquiry. This was rejected.

Once the inquiry began, and it became apparent that the Inquiry could not be railroaded through and hence the 2nd May contract date referred to above would be missed, the Appellants, we say, did everything they could to drag out the Inquiry. This was, we say, in the expectation that the Rule 6 Party would find their financial resources exhausted. So for example, Mr Haddock was cross examined by the Appellants for a day and so was Mr Billings, with the result that in 6 days of the Inquiry only 6 witnesses were heard.

The Appellants have requested a further 8 Inquiry days for the remaining 7 witnesses thus making what was a 6 day inquiry a 14 day Inquiry – the Inquiry is now adjourned until 4th November. To quote the Inspector on the last day of the Inquiry ‘Planning Appeals for a Nuclear Power Station take less time than this’.

Divisive Approach: One of the biggest shames in this whole process is that the Community and Local businesses were not able to sit down with the board of the Golf Club in the beginning. We asked. There was no response. Councillors asked. There was no response. The Deputy Mayor asked. There was no response.

No-one we know of is in any way against the golf club. No one wants to see it fail, which is all the more reason why it is such a shame that none of the golf club board wished to enter into discussions. And yet this is the only reason we are now at a full public Inquiry rather than having seen progress on a scheme everyone could live with years ago.

Indeed, not one single golf club member or board director spoke for the scheme and not one stayed to listen to the many members of the public (and indeed many golf club members) speak about why it should be refused.

Instead, the interventions of a house builder and their lawyers have served to push the parties further away from each other, rather than recognising that the amicable way of progressing this matter of everyone sitting round a table is what is best for all concerned and ultimately Torbay as a whole.

Should the position change we would of course be delighted to hear from the golf club board, or whoever else from the golf club who would like to speak to us.

In the meantime, we would like to express our sincere appreciation for all the support, assistance and encouragement from members of the local community in particular the eloquent speakers at the Inquiry and from numerous well-wishers.

RESIDENTIAL LANDLORDS BEWARE!

Residential landlords have been required to protect their assured shorthold tenant's deposit in one of the statutory schemes since 6th April 2007.

In addition to protecting the deposit, a landlord must ensure that he/she provides the tenant with certain prescribed information relating to the tenant's deposit. This must be done within 30 days of receipt of the deposit.

Failure to provide the prescribed information to the tenant could lead to the landlord being liable to pay a fine to the tenant of up to three times the amount of the deposit. It is therefore essential for a landlord not only to protect the tenant's deposit but to provide all the required information within the prescribed time period. Landlords should beware of providing incomplete information.

Is it enough, however, to protect the deposit and supply the required information? What happens if a dispute arises and the tenant denies having received the required information within the time period?

In order for landlords to avoid such difficulties it is strongly recommended that landlords retain written proof of having supplied all the required information to the tenant within the 30 day time-limit by asking the tenant to sign the documentation.

For further information and a free initial consultation to discuss any legal issues relating to tenancy agreements contact us.

GALMPTON

“The West Country is for life – not just for holidays” was one of the headlines in the Daily Telegraph’s West Country Property Special published on 29th March. Included in the list of their top twenty highlights was Galmpton Village nestling on the banks of the river Dart mid-way between Brixham and Paignton. To quote from the paper “Galmpton Quay is where keen sailors join the River Dart. The village shop is called the Galleon Stores and mariners can stock up on provisions both here and at the village butcher’s, then take a tot of rum at the Manor Inn.” Their insider tip stated “there is not just a preschool and primary school within walking distance but a grammar school as well.” These few column inches in the paper just scratch the surface of life in the village. Eric Lloyd & Co’s director, Jonathan Bye, has lived in the village for most of his life and can heartily endorse these comments.

Eric Lloyd & Co’s office at Windy Corner has recently agreed several sales on properties in and around the village including a three bedroom “Staverton” house in Warborough Road and a flat in Fairway Close adjacent to the railway station. Contracts have also recently been exchanged on an outstanding barn conversion in Galmpton Farm Court and a bungalow in Galmpton Glade. Rachel Cows, manager of the Churston office, has many buyers actively searching for a home in Galmpton village.

If you are considering selling in Galmpton give Rachel a call on 01803 844466.
